

Minimalist Nesting Table

This set of three nesting tables offers limitless design possibilities for any room. Their sleek, clean lines and minimalist design would look great with both modern and traditional décor. Use them together or individually.

Bursting Bubbles Table Lamp

This modern table lamp adds bubbly fun as a solitary piece or a pair. The cream-colored bubbles floating along a sky-blue linen lampshade evoke a day of outdoor fun. Its matching sturdy base and wooden accents finish off the natural look while one last "bubble" floats on top. Careful, don't pop it!

Rainbow Tube Vase

So many colors, so many choices! This fully glazed ceramic bud vase is perfect for a single flower or multiple stems. You can even leave all eight tubes flowerless because, yes, it looks just as good. The variety of vase colors and heights add a playful, capricious feel. Attached to a white rectangular base, the Rainbow Tube Vase is a perfect accent for any table or windowsill.

The Nelson Block Clock

Originally designed by George Nelson in the 1940s, this iconic clock looks as contemporary today as when it was first conceived. Its wooden rectangular "blocks" on stems, beige face and black hour and minute hands are sure to add style to any room.

Industrial Cool Cabinet

Unclutter your home with this nine-cubby, two-drawer cabinet. Hang it on the wall or let it sit on the floor. Either way, the metal and rustic accents make your home "industrial cool."

Collection description of a Nantucket beach house:

“Nautical at Its Best”

Trying to channel the unspoiled beaches, windswept dunes and dramatic beauty of Nantucket within your home? Look no further! We bring you, “Nautical at its Best.”

Capture the simplicity of the ocean with this collection’s natural design elements, such as, wood, wicker and sisal. Accent your furniture with pillows and rugs saturated in aqua blues, seaweed greens and sunny yellows. Immerse yourself in the island’s seafaring heritage with ship models, weather vanes and scrimshawed accessories. Then close your eyes and listen for the tide to roll in.
